WOMEN'S SWIM TEAM
HOSTS WSU SATURDAY

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana women's swim team hosts Washington State University this Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Grizzly Pool. Montana, 2-2 on the season, lost to the Cougars 82½-38½ last weekend in Pullman.

Washington State's freshman Tamie Stewart, who is from Kalispell, set school records in the 100 and 200 butterfly in last week's meet.

The Grizzlies are led by sophomore Tracy McLean, who swims the 100-yard freestyle, and freshman Barb Zay, who competes in the individual medley and breaststroke.
